

Dennis Odwe

Dennis Odwe works as Regional Programs Manager at Food for the hungry in international. He has 12 years of work experience in NGO sector in areas of policy analysis, advocacy, capacity building and program management and design. Prior to working with food for the hungry, he worked as Executive Director for Action group for Health for 7 years, and with Lira NGO Forum as governance and Advocacy Coordinator.

Dennis is passionate about health policy and serving the vulnerable persons. He loves voluntary work and he also works as a board member in Foundation for Integrated Rural Development (FIRD)-Uganda and Girls Forum International.

He has a master degree in Development Studies, a PGD in Project planning and management, a BA in Social Sciences and a Certificate in M&E.